

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION AND POLICY

About the Authors

Professor Peter K.W. Fong, PhD (New York University), is a Professor at HK Chu Hai College of Higher Education; Research Associate of Centre of Research on Education in China, Faculty of Education, HKU; President of Hong Kong Public Administration Association and Co-Editor-in-Chief of Public Administration and Policy — An Asia-Pacific Journal; Director of Go Fun Card Ltd. He also holds advisory and visiting Professorships in several Mainland China universities, namely Tsinghua, Renmin, Tongji, and Tianjin Universities. He is a Registered Professional Planner in HK. He was formerly a Fellow of Judge Business School, University of Cambridge; Director of EMBA Programme, HKU Business School; Executive Vice President of Asia International Open University (now City University of Macau); Studies Director of the Civil Service Training & Development Institute of the HKSAR Government; Visiting Scholar at MIT; and Consultant of the World Bank.

Professor Peter P. Yuen, PhD (Birmingham), is Dean of the College of Professional and Continuing Education (CPCE) of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University (PolyU). He is also Professor in the Department of Management and Marketing of PolyU. Professor Yuen held a number of management positions in PolyU — Associate Vice-President, Director of the Public Policy Research Institute, and Head of the Department of Management. His research involves public policy formulation and evaluation, and health services management. He is an Editor of Public Administration and Policy and an Editorial Committee member of Asia Pacific Journal of Health Management. He is a founding Fellow of the Hong Kong College of Health Services Executives, and an Honorary Fellow of the Australian College of Health Services Management. He once served as Vice-President of the Chinese National Institute of Health Care Management Education, and President of the Hong Kong Public Administration Association.

Mr. Richard M.F. Yuen is the Permanent Secretary for Health, Hong Kong Special Administration Region Government. He graduated from the University of Hong Kong in 1980. He joined the Hong Kong Government in the same year as an Administrative Officer. Mr. Yuen has served in many different bureaux and departments during his career. His recent postings include the Commissioner of Insurance between 2003 and 2006 and Commissioner of Customs and Excise from 2007 to 2011. Mr. Yuen has been the Permanent Secretary for Health since September 2011.

Dr. Sabrina C.Y. Luk is Associate Professor of Faculty of Management and Economics, Kunming University of Science and Technology, China. Her research interests lie broadly in health care reforms, e-government, governance, institutional analysis, and public administration. She was the winner of the 2012 Michael O'Rourke PhD Publication Award at the University of Birmingham for her research contributions and publication record. She was also the Highly Commended Award winner of the 2013 Emerald/European Foundation for Management Development (EFMD) Outstanding Doctoral Research Awards in the Health Care Management category.

Professor Ben Haobin Ye, PhD, is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Hospitality and Service Management, School of Business, Sun Yat-sen University. He received his PhD degree from The Hong Kong Polytechnic University. His research interests include consumer behavior, cross-cultural consumer psychology, tourist motivation, tourist-host relationship, medical tourism, tourism policy and human resources management. He has published articles in major international journals (e.g., Annals of Tourism Research, Tourism Management, International Journal of Hospitality Management, International Journal of Contemporary Hospitality Management, Journal of Hospitality and Tourism Research, and etc.)

Professor Hanqin Qiu, Professor of international tourism, School of Hotel and Tourism Management, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, received her BA (Hons) from Nankai University in Mainland China, MA degree from University of Waterloo in Canada, and PhD from University of Strathclyde in UK. Her research interests are tourism studies, consumer behavior, and China hotel and tourism development and policy issues. She has published over 70 journal articles in major international journals and presented about 70 research papers at international conferences. She also won more than 20 major government grants in Hong Kong and China. She has been actively involved in consulting and executive training for World Tourism Organization, China Hotel Association, China Travel Hotel Management Services HK Ltd, Guangzhou Hotel Association, and so on.

Professor Daniel Simonet, BA, M.S. and PhD, was a post-doctoral fellow at the Wharton School and Columbia University, a visiting faculty and consultant in Asia and Middle East. Previously, he was a visiting researcher with the University of Venice in Italy, and taught management at the Nanyang Business School in Singapore at the undergraduate and MBA level. He is an Associate Professor of management at the American University of Sharjah where he teaches Strategic Management and Public Administration. He has published over 50 articles on management and public policy as well as 3 books. His research interests lie in public policy, comparative health systems and the management of natural resources.